INFO ON "WELCOME TO THE TWILA ZONE" Once you've entered the "Twila Zone", there's no turning back, baby!!! This CD is so mesmerizing you'll be playing it over and over again. Twila wrote the lyrics and music for all 13 songs on her debut CD, "Welcome to the Twila Zone", a compilation of mainstream music, which was released in 2001 on her label, "Tasmanian Records". Each song - so unique and so powerful. Twila's voice is a unique blend of soothing and sweet, yet soulful resonance with an R&B flavor. These are some of the most beautiful ballads you'll ever hear and some of the most fun dance tunes. She combines meaningful lyrics everyone can relate to with innovative chord progressions - sometimes integrating Latin, Santana-like rhythms. Some songs have a hip-hop vibe featuring a DJ scratcher and several rappers. This is music for EVERYONE. It's a combo of beautiful, but really hip music. You haven't heard anything like this before. Twila wrote over 50 songs for her debut CD and narrowed it down to her 13 favorites. This up and coming diva is about to tear up the town with her petite, 5'1" captivating and powerful presence, her 3+ octave range, and vocal savvy.

ABOUT TWILA

Italian actress and singer/songwriter Twila Wolfe was born and raised in Annapolis, MD. Twila began her singing and acting career at the age of five, performing for The Children's Theatre of Annapolis. At 10, she began writing her own plays and musicals, and became the lead singer and guitarist of the folk mass during her high school years. Classically trained and singing in 5 languages, Twila received a fine arts degree in Voice at The East Carolina University School of Music in Greenville, N.C. She also received a fine arts degree in Drama at the renowned Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. While attending both universities, Twila supplemented her income by singing and playing the keyboard in local venues, and by singing jingles and doing voice-overs for various radio stations. Gaining national attention from her vocal talent on the radio, Twila was asked to perform with country Hall of Fames, Pee Wee King and Little Jimmy Dickens, for several benefit concerts in Berea, Kentucky. Twila landed her first break in the film industry in 1990 in the film, "The White Girl", co-starring with Don Hannah (Daryl's brother), and was honored with a Certificate of Distinguished Citizenship award by the mayor of Annapolis. Her other film credits include Claudia in "Road to Revenge", with Wings Hauser and William Smith, Karen in "The Flesh Merchant", Vanessa in "The Being Eternal", the hilarious Juliet in "Medium Hot", Maria in "The Soul of Slaves", Ariel in "Shadows Behind Me", and a police woman in the thriller, "Zipperface". Her television credits include the comedic role of heiress Victoria on the HBO episode, "Divorce Law", several comedic roles on "The Byron Allen Show", and a docudrama reenactment on "Hard Copy". She has also performed in several Off-Off Broadway productions in New York City. Currently, Twila is writing and producing her 2nd CD, "Blak and Bluz", which has a release date of spring 2006. To date, Twila has donated more than 2,000 CD's to our troops in Iraq.
