

Mp3 Various - The Family Tree Compilation

DOWNLOAD HERE

The Family Tree Compilation is one of the greatest Dirty South Compilations of all times. This Cd contains unda ground rap r&b from some the south's best up and coming artists. 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues Details: THE FAMILY TREE COMPILATION Bringing the hottest new talent in the South is The Family Tree Compilation. Led by producers Derrick Martin and Darryl Pete along with veteran rapper "The Godfather Mello- T" of Wildliffe Society. The Family Tree Compilation is makin' mad noize on the streets of Jackson, MS. The lead single "Don't Hate The Playa" by Eddie Seawood Featuring Mello-T and Jefro was a certified hit on Jackson's top urban station WJMI and featured on the "Playa" segment on the nationally syndicated Tom Joyner Morning Show. Hot new tracks from legendary underground/national rap act Wildliffe Society will keep hardcore heads noddin' with songs like "Get Yo Beg On", the hyper "Thugged Out" and the title track "Family Tree" about the ills of addiction. "On every family tree you got a smoker". Also making a special guest appearance is the Children Of The Cornbread. A tight new clique of four talented young rappers that are behind the smash hit "Here I Come" that is making radio programmers and retail outlets scramble to get a copy of The Family Tree Compilation. Other cameos include performances by Unda Kova, formally known as P.G.U. featuring "Mo Wet" and the bangin' "We Likes To Party". Lastly, to even out The Family Tree Compilation is hip-hop Phenom Treasure. A legend in California's underground Bay Area scene, Treasure relocated back to the South to bless Airtight with some of the dopest rhymes you will ever hear. The funky mid-tempo "Time" reminds folks to keep your head up because "Tomomrrow's gotta be a better day than the last". And the live jazzy "Afterglow closes then Compilation by lulling you into Airtight bliss. So be sure to pick this one up. I promise you won't regret it.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: