"Make Products Look Professional With These Brand New Minisite Templates - Now Start Selling Online Right Away Without Hundreds Of Dollars In Your Budget!" From the desks of Anders Eriksson & Lawrence Crampshee. Dear Wesite Owners & Site Prospectors, It only takes a few seconds for site visitors to stay or breakaway leaving site altogether. As an old saying goes, first impressions last longest, which is great in an ideal world. On the Internet it can be dramatically different first impressions may lose visitors, who are potential customers forever. Which is made even harder still by not being able to see site visitors faces and neither do they see yours. For that reason a site holding products or offering services must grab that first impression very favourably. Also must assist in the creation of a view of trust with visitors, which in turn will compel visitor confidence and stimulate the impulse to buy offers or services. While contributing to enhance customers returning again and again so maximising on potential sales and future purchases. There are few better ways than by having a minisite uploaded with some eye catching professional

looking graphics in place. If having the time and the talent to create the graphics needed that's great, if not then a graphic designer is the next best thing. The first option is less costly than hiring that designer, though the finish purely depends upon graphical abilities. Not forgetting to mention your own required time which in many cases is often an underestimated but costly consideration. You may have heard the saying online 'you snooze you lose', well the same could be said when 'time's lost then skilled' the result is the same. What if you don't have the money to cover the cost of expensive graphic designer's fees? Are then not able to find the time to do it yourself or have not the required experience. Coupled always with the time factor pressure of getting the product published and in promotion right away? Introducing the...
