Singer/songwriter with an acoustical season in the vein of Damien Rice/David Gray 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustical POP: with Live-band Production People Make Mistakes E.P. Songs Details: From busking on the London Hole-and-corner to headlining a sell-out gig in Chicago Aaron Brusk fuses his own herculean Pop/Rock songs with the great songs from the past fifty years performed in his own dynamic way.

"Reminds me of James Blunt - only with better song writing and a much better voice..." Aaron is a 25-year-old singer/songwriter currently based in London. His first adventure into music began at the age of seven when he started piano lessons. Soon Aaron began amalgamating key elements of his singer/songwriter influences - Damien Rice, Elvis Costello and Tom Waits into an approach that brings together his fluent guitar and piano playing, deep singing voice and invigorating improvisation into timeless sounding songs that touch people of all ages. "This is the best song writing I've yet heard on this site." - Garageband.com Having performed countless gigs in his home county of Suffolk and subsequently all over the United Kingdom he is now a regular on the London circuit performing up to five times a week with duo "Itchy Scratchy" or 4-piece band "The Bluejacks". This experience combined with a B.Mus (Hons) in Popular Music at Europe's leading vocal school "Vocaltech" has led to him being a herculean performer in any situation. Aaron is currently promoting his new E.P. "People Make Mistakes". For more information visit aaronshort.com
