AudraRox is bringing a rock-n-roll dance party to you. AudraRox..."has an approach to kids' music that blends punky energy with PB&J homeyness." On what may be the ultimate kid/parent crossover album, AudraRox has a bit of rebellion for both generations. 13 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly, ROCK: Punk Details: Time Out NY Kids Readers Choice Award winning band 2005! Check them out on Noggin's "Jack's Big Music Show" airing January 2007!! "Led by Brooklyn mom Audra Tsanos, AudraRox has earned a legion of loyal fans thanks to it's colorful, high-energy live shows. The band's long awaited new CD which comes fully loaded with the same blow-the-roof-of-the-playhouse quality as it's concert performances will more than satisfy devotees, and should create plenty of new Roxheads as well. The group's undeniable punk edge is evident on nearly every track; you can practically hear the leather and tattoos. Frankly, the members possess more street cred than any children's musicians should rightfully have, and they'd probably be playing CBGB if their songs didn't revolve around sit n' spins and eating broccoli. But make no mistake, this is a kids' band: Infectious melodies, sing-a-long (or in some cases, shout-a-long) choruses, and Tsanos's impeccably smooth vocals will have even the youngest toddlers bouncing. The lyrics speak directly to children, but not without a wink to mom and dad, especially on tracks like "Short Attention Span," "Sugar High" and "Pro-cras-tin-a-ting" ("That's a long word which means you're busy doing nothing"). It's a rare CD that can appeal equally to a serious rock purist and his 4-year-old daughter. AudraRox proves once and for all that pre-schoolers and guitar solos do mix."
