"Brother Eye are the coolest band in America." -rollingstone Produced by Dave Fridmann (Mercury Rev, Flaming Lips), this mix of pop psychedelia really has mass appeal etched all over it. ...a dizzyingly beautiful album. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Americana Details: "Produced by Dave Fridmann (who has worked with some of my favorite bands including the amazing Mercury Rev and Flaming Lips), this mix of pop psychedelia really has mass appeal etched all over it. ...a dizzyingly beautiful album that has a high-gleam, polished finish without tampering with the raw goods tucked away inside. Fans of Tupelo, Mats, Sugar/Husker Du, Satchel, and '70's power pop will really enjoy this record for its purity of spirit and rock sensibility. Don't be fooled, this isn't overly-complicated progressive psychedelic rock, and it isn't just a bunch of power chords waiting to assault your ears. Brother Eye's material meets up with you somewhere in the middle, basking in underplayed melodic rock bliss." --Heidi Drockelman, Indie-music.com "All the Pretty Girls Get the Triangle" marks the long awaited return of Brother Eye. Produced by Dave Fridmann (Mercury Rev, Flaming Lips, etc.), this self described power pop garageadelic band continues refining their blend of Cheap Trick crunch and Pink Floyd atmospherics with dizzying results. With the biographical track, "Inger Lorre" (read the story: laweekly.com/ink/99/18/music-pearson1a.shtml ) leading the way on radio, this album is destined to become an indie rock classic and college radio favorite.
