Details: Piping by the Oaks of Mamre was born out of a love for bagpipes and the unique music of the middle ages. This CD features many traditional songs of medieval Europe played on four different types of bagpipes, different styles of drums and percussions, as well as flutes and whistles. All of these wonderful instruments are being played to a backdrop of nature's own music. From the bubbling brooks and waterfalls of the Columbia River Gorge in Oregon to the beautiful songs of the humpback whale. I do believe this CD shall bring merriment to thine ears!
