The Hideous Sun Demons features: Toshi Hiketa- guitar James LoMenzo- bass Ray Luzier- drums *All members have recently toured the world with David Lee Roth and are featured on his latest CD "Diamond Dave" which is in stores now. It was released the summer of 2003! The group was originally formed by drummer Ray Luzier, a seven year member of the DLR Band, at the end of 2001. He got together with an amazing guitarist named Toshi Hiketa, who had just moved from Japan, to "explore various types of music that both interested and inspired them." They had both been a fan of bassist James LoMenzo for quite some time. Ray had just brought James into the Roth Camp and told him about the band that he and Toshi had started. They asked him if he'd be interested in joining and he emphatically said "yes." The three got together for formal writing sessions in Los Angeles and found instant chemistry, spontaneously composing material with ease. This CD has very melodic guitar lines at times and blistering solos in others. The drums are dynamic, yet powerful and fierce. The bass is crafty and unique, featuring some beautiful solo spots. It's not your typical instrumental record! There are many styles and moods on it. Some songs are very structured and some are jam orientated. Even if you've never bought an instrumental CD before, check this one out... you'll find yourself listening to it more than you think! James has recorded and performed with artists such as: Zakk
