Live, acoustic songs from pop/folk/rock group with heavenly vocals and passionate guitars 9 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folky Pop Details: Borrowing from the Americana/Roots tradition but firmly grounded with a pleasing pop sensibility, Jen Scott Smith's intimate and concise songwriting style, honey-smoked vocals, signature guitar hooks and passionate performances have won them a career supporting base of loyal fans among listeners and the music and film industry alike. They are spending 2003 touring as a duo and with their 6 piece band, incorporating guitars, dobro, Irish bouzouki, drums, percussion B3 organ, piano, and bass guitar in support of their 5th cd release, "Five by Five". Jen Scott's songwriting credits include cuts on Evangeline's 'French Quarter Moon' (MCA), Troy Turners 'Blues on My Back' (Telarc) and film and tv spots on Brooklyn South, Jack Jill, The Young The Restless, That's Life, Second to Die, The Girl Next Door, About Sarah and The Smokers. Awards include the Washington Area Musicians Association Best Female Vocalist in the Rock/Pop, Roots Rock and Contemporary Folk categories. In their own words, "Touching the hearts of an audience is a priceless experience for us. We feel incredibly lucky to have a chance to spend our lives doing what we can to make that happen on each record and at every show." Thursday, October 21st is a live, acoustic album recorded in an old barn on the Maryland/Pennsylvania line.
