Traditional Quartemporary Gospel is one the rise. If you like Traditional Quartet Gospel with a little contemporary mix, this is for you. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: It all began in 1995 when the young Nu TestAment was called to spread their God-given talents with a very well-known group that went by the name of The Supreme Stars. Nu TestAment would perform popular music with The Supreme Stars at local churches and related events. As they matured with The Supreme Stars, they began to explore the gospel field and would later start to write and arrange more and more of their own music. In 1997 The Supreme Stars recorded their first album with the young Nu TestAment entitled "Daddy's Songs", which featured the co-production of Mr. Jeffrey Newberry of the world renowned Gospel Keynotes. By 1999, their success in their hometown of Jacksonville, Florida had become so great, they would find their calendar of bookings quickly beginning to overflow, but tragically, their tables began to turn. Their lives would do the same, but they were too determined. God had begun to call his ministers of the gospel music realm home. After singing for over 35 years (The Supreme Stars) it was now time for Nu TestAment to keep God's gospel ball rolling. Because of the maturity these young men have demonstrated throughout their musical and spiritual growth, The Nu TestAment Gospel Singers are now poised, primed and ready to reach and minister to God's people in song. The Nu TestAment Gospel Singers have made many television appearances such as Gospel Reunion at the Apollo Theatre and The Faith Awards. They have also ministered at various events including the McDonald's Gospelfest, The National Black Arts Festival, The House of Blues, Orlando, Florida and many other events throughout their home state of Florida and the U. S.
