Intricate and unusual compositions matched by technical fingerpicking prowess. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Power-folk, WORLD: Australian Details: Raised on a sheep farm in central NSW, Ross Waldron set about developing a style of playing that is completely self-sufficient, yet complex and intricate. Entertaining audiences around the world from Canada to Cape York, Ross has thus far managed to avoid using standard tuning for all twenty eight years of his life. His fingerstyle tunes are of embellished origins yet stellar quality, while his compositions are innovative and captivating. Performances often involve a detailed and humorous explanation of the inspiration for the tunes, but rarely are they accurate or correct
