Various styles, ranging from funny to sad... whimsical, upbeat, quirky, entirely original 12 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Gentle Details: Sue Fink is a Chicago-based singer-songwriter. "Damsel In Distress," her new (first full-length) CD, incorporates a variety of musical styles. With subject matter ranging from a not-so-helpless woman trying to attract her love's attention ("Damsel"), to fishing as an analogy for love, to dealing with loss, the lyrics and tunes will stick with you... and you can't help but leave feeling happy! This cd is graced by the the musical talents of Tony Dale (percussion), Bob Long (piano), Kathryn Lake (violin), Michael Miles (banjo), Al Ehrich (bass), Steve Joyner (guitar), and Sue Demel, Jenny Bienemann, and Deb Lader (harmonies). Produced by Sue Fink and Bruce Roper. * Also, please visit cdbaby.com/suefink to hear Sue's previous CD sampler, "Not Quite There Yet," which contains 5 different songs... *  Please note: There are TWO Sue Fink singer/songwriters! If you're looking for the well-known Sue Fink from the West coast... I'm not her. We're both funny, both nice, both Sue Fink, but not the same person. Go to cdbaby.com/cd/acchorale2 to hear "Angel City Chorale: Why Walk When You Can Fly?", directed (and founded) by the other Sue Fink.  Scroll down to read nice reviews...
