TAYLOR MADE JAZZ, has a dynamic approach and smooth style, which has made them a hit to the various audiences they entertain. Their world travels have taken them to Puerto Rico, Panama, Honduras, Cuba and Haiti, in the Caribbean and Central American area. They have also entertained at U.S. Embassies and festivals in Europe and the Middle East in the countries of Turkey, England, France, Italy, Sicily, Crete, Greece, Bosnia, Germany, Israel, Jordan, Egypt, and Mozambique. The overwhelming response to their CD "AGAPE-sit back and check it out" while performing in Toronto, Buffalo, Naples and Amman has shown an outstanding career in the making in the recording world. Their just released CD "FULL CIRCLE - what goes around comes around" (a collection of pop and jazz standards), along with their all original music CD "THE NEXT STEP - everything is gonna be alright", is sure to delight and surpass the success of their first CD. The group won the 2004, 2003, 2002, 2001 and 1996 top R&B award presented by Nite Life Magazine and Buffalo Music Awards Committee, and the 1997 International Diamond Accord Award presented by the International Organization of Festivals "F.I.D.O.F.". They are also members of the American Federation of Musicians. TAYLOR MADE JAZZ is also noted for their workshops with children in schools and Embassies in the art of Jazz and R&B and fund raising for various charities worldwide. The Common Council of The City of Buffalo New York, in recognition of Taylor Made Jazz Bands achievements to the community and country, declared Tuesday, July 22, 2003 "TAYLOR MADE JAZZ DAY" in the City of Buffalo.
