Relentless head-bobbing Ludwig tempos and raw overdriven guitars mixed with quirky vocals and cheeky lyrics wrapped up in the best power-pop package of the year. 5 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP:

Quirky Details: A relentless head-bob Ludwig tempo and raw, overdriven guitars are the foundation of The Upskirts and the backdrop for depraved vocals and harmonies that defy easy description. It's pop, no doubt about it. Post-punk pissed and full of vinegar: The Upskirt's sound is tense and urgent. These troublemakers tell it like it is loud and clear with melodies that beg repeating. They craft smart, terse pop songs performed with an intensity rarely seen today. Hailing from Seattle, Washington by way of London, England, this three piece power-pop outfit rolls the energy and essence of Supergrass and The Undertones together with the social observations and wit of The Kinks and Belle and Sebastian. The Upskirts received critical acclaim, including airplay on KEXP, with their E.P. titled "High School Journal Keepers" (released on Big City Crime $yndicate Records). The Upskirts are: Brad Wright: Vocals, guitars Dave Browne: Bass, vocals Sheryl Lanham: Drums, vocals
