An electronic maelstrom that defies all categories in search of its own secrets. 5 MP3 Songs

ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ELECTRONIC: Soundscapes Details: Children of the Secret A Techno Shamanic Ambient Journey into a World of Secrets! Mysterious spaces of sound and gentle suggestions on the way... Among us (you and me) there's always been a certain suspicion, a feeling, a sensation that there is some underlying secret some all encompassing final truth a touch of finality in a sea of endlessness. Those who feel this sensation, we call: The Children of the Secret... souls drenched in questions and with a barely felt taste for the answers, ever so close. This CD, this music, this structure of vibrations, is a gift to these children, wherever you are. Ambient? Techno? Dub? Experimental? Yes... all that and more! Here is what BPM magazine has to say about our CD: "...while listening, beware... this CD is over before you know it, and while you weren't looking, raped you of your consciousness and shattered all your preconceived ideas of electronic music." (Steve-O for BPM Magazine) A shaman is a conscious being who is able to disengage itself from a limited perspective that is forced upon it through a life long identification with a particular human body. The process of disengagement is the quest of the hero, the delving into the darkest regions of consciousness, the Land of the Dead. The shaman returns modified, never to be the same and bearing gifts. Our influences range from the Orb, Aphex Twin, Bill Laswell, Hearts of Space, FSOL and DJ Spooky to composers such as Debussy, John Cage and Philip Glass.
