Angela has always been musically inclined throughout her entire career. She has served in various phases in the music business, including management, Career development, booking and promoting. Angela has worked with Camara Video as a Executive Marketing Specialist and Event Coordinator for a few years. Her background includes years of booking concert acts and shows and the management of Artist's. Angela has developed various youth work shops in music and in dance for the arts. The evidence of this includes her involvement with the Portland Apollo, a local talent based group. The founding of her non profit group, The Youth Arts achievement Program and Infinity Productions, Angela's objective with the youth is to gain confidence in self and put forth positivity, to gain respect for oneself and others. To be creative and to know if you work hard at whatever you do nothing is impossible, an also to create maximum exposure through advertising, promotion and premuim. Angela is very much of a contributor to the arts and is a role model to the youth, an aspiring artist and entertainer who plans on really making a difference while creating a maximum impact and output of the greatest magnitude through out the world. The soulful sounds of the Angelistic Angel'le infuses a retro/futuristic and R&B flair. The seductive style combined with "a real womens worth" proves to be the recipe. The undeniable wisdom that only a strong woman would recognize. She in fact is proud to be a woman and defines that. Keep a close eye on this Artist because there is a whole lot in store for the masses of real music listeners.
