Details: The broad sands and rolling dunes of Nauset are the picture of the definitive Cape Cod Beach. The historic written passages of the Pilgrims, Thoreau, Champlain, and Henry Beston are all testament to her visual drama. However, her sound is no less characteristic. The dramatic inhale and exhale of the Nauset surf is both the first and last of her striking features. This 63 minute digital recording of the ocean at Nauset Beach in Orleans is 100 natural, with no added music or synthesized sound. Play it as a relaxing backdrop to your busy work place, while reading a book, while giving or receiving a massage, or present it as a gift to your favorite homesick Cape Codder. The Cape Cod Soundscapes Series is drawn from the field recordings of Christopher Seufert and the Mooncusser Films audio archive. Mooncusser Films is an entirely independent film and video production company specializing in documentaries, educational programs, music video, and promotional projects. In addition to projects of their own design, the company has also been lucky enough to work all over the world with a great variety of people, including journalist Walter Cronkite, musician Suzanne Vega, the late illustrator Edward Gorey, actress Julie Harris, and filmmaker Al Maysles.
