He recently scored director Anthony Scarpas feature film Grace which premiered at the Los Angeles Silver Lake Film Festival in 2006. Winner of the Audience Award at the 2003 festival with the critically acclaimed documentary Betty Blowtorch And Her Amazing True Life Adventures, Scarpa teams with cinematographer Tom Camarda (Transamerica) for his narrative debut. Dunboyne native Ciarn Hope, who originally landed in Hollywood as a Fulbright Scholar, was called in to create the score for the moving emotional drama that follows a young womans fight with terminal illness. Hope has previously written music for the TV series Buffy the Vampire Slayer and for the feature films Manfast and It's a Guy Thing. He has just completed work on a horror feature entitled Hollywood Horror which was produced by legendary Hollywood producer Elliot Kastner. Next up for Ciaran, is an epic on the life of Mother Teresa by Award winning director Bill Riead, and being produced and DPd by Academy Award Nominee Jack Green (Unforgiven).
