Singer songwriter melodic pop alternative with southern rock and country influences 10 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Americana Details: CLOSET POP JUNKIES THE BIO: Somewhere, sometime, somehow we all like pop music, even if it's that old song in the background of the new soft drink commercial. There is more to music than that. Pop is pop, but good song writing is a perfectly mixed Jack and Coke, or a perfectly aged wine. Good songwriting comes from the heart, not the balance sheet. Closet Pop Junkies is the musical jones, so to speak, of Detroit native and Charlotte transplant Anthony ( Tony ) Fisher. CPJ is his songwriting outlet. A front for his tender, sometimes haunting, songs of personal reflection with mild self judgment sprinkled throughout, yet expressing a vulnerable inner desire to change and grow spiritually, and as a human being. Closet Pop Junkies new music collection, Signs ( on Detroit based /cRUDE/ Records ), includes songs sharing inner self doubt with hope for redemption, songs expressing joy and reflective fulfillment, as well as some chronologically dark expressions of a haunting past. Tony Fisher has invested his inner self into his music, and every track is like a long lost friend sharing his memories with you at a Saturday night backyard barbecue over a few beers. The musical performances on the CD are culled from three sessions over two years in producer Bradford Johnson's /cRUDE/ studios, the main studio of CPJ's label /cRUDE/ Records. Most of the music on the CD was performed by Tony, Bradford, an drummer/vocalist Robert Myers. The songs are tight musically, yet have a relaxed vibe, and you can hear the inner most feelings of joy and apprehension in Tony's expressive vocal tracks. The focus on every track is Tony's lyrics, which seem to all have an underlying theme, yet each stand alone with exclusive insight into different veins of common human behavior and experience. The collection as a whole covers a wide range of human emotion at any one time, sharing and emoting joy, fear, faith, hope, guilt, and love.
