Details: ABOUT DIGITECK: Based in the South of France, "Deekly" and "Mike Tess" are the dynamic production duo better known as Digiteck. With very different individual production styles and influences, the members of Digiteck have managed to combine their unique talents into a magical fresh sound that they call "electro house clubbing", a sound that has the ears of music industry insiders buzzing with excitement. ABOUT DEEKLY: Deekly can count the English, French and German music scenes as his primary musical influences, and he has also found inspiration in many European New Wave acts including Depeche Mode, Soft Cell, Indochine and New Order, as well as a variety of other electronic acts including Digitalism, Daft Punk, Tiga, Felix da Housecat, DJ Hell, David Carretta , Vitalic and Armand Van Helden. While other kids were still on the playground, Deekly began concentrating on developing his own production skills and began to perfect his creations when he was barely 15 years old. It was not long before local radio stations began to take notice, and his first productions found their way onto the airwaves, attracting a vast audience of loyal listeners. After finding success collaborating on a wide variety of international projects, Deekly has now joined forces with fellow DJ/Producer "Mike Tess" to form his most recent partnership, Digiteck. ABOUT MIKE TESS: Growing up, Mike Tess was inspired by the funky house jams of Larry Levan, Little Louie Vega and Masters At Work and the soulful stylings of George Benson, Marvin Gaye and Teddy Pendergrass. "Mike Tess" began his professional DJ career in the summer of 1998, spinning his tracks at venues on the Mediterranean island of Corsica. The following summer, he earned a spot as a summer resident DJ at Club Amnesia in Corsica, warming up the turntables for such DJ legends as Laurent Garnier, Carl Cox,

Master-H, and Charles Schillings. Mike Tess has also displayed his considerable DJ skills at some of the biggest European hot spots on the planet at private events in Paris, Lyon, Monaco, St Topez and Geneva. Mike Tess soon began to branch out from deejaying and decided to begin producing the type of music he loved, and inspired by the soulful grooves of house, R&B and deep music, he began to find his own unique style. Currently, Mike Tess can be heard on no less than three French radio mixshows: Radio Star, Aperostar and Groove Session. Together, Deekly and Mike Tess create a fantastic blend of cutting edge dance music that defies being categorized into any one genre. With their fingers on the pulse of the industry, Digiteck is truly the sound of the future of dance music. ABOUT DAMIAN WILD:

International recording artist DAMIAN WILD was born in the Bronx, NY and was born to sing. DAMIAN began his career at the age of eleven as a choirboy in a local church choir, an experience he found less than heavenly: "The hymns we used to sing in church were totally boring. I wanted to sing something soulful and funky." After falling from the choir's grace (DAMIAN still insists to this day that he had something on when he lifted his choir robe in front of a packed congregation, although reliable church eyewitnesses say otherwise!) DAMIAN decided it was either the entertainment industry or reform school, so he chose what many people would consider to be the unwise choice: The Entertainment Industry! DAMIAN'S debut single "YOU'RE MY FANTASY", produced by Maurizio "Jazz Voice" Verbeni and Constantino Padovano, was released by Media Records in Italy and burned up dance floors across Italy, Germany, The Netherlands and the United States. "YOU'RE MY FANTASY" is internationally regarded as a classic Italo house track. DAMIAN penned his follow-up single "LOVE WON'T LET YOU DOWN", which was released in Europe on Radikal Records. DAMIAN has also appeared on several dance compilations including STYLIN'FREE: THE ALTERNATIVE DANCE COMPILATION , RADIKAL HOUSE PARTY, and on a Hot Tracks underground DJ compilation along with such notable acts as Moby, Sasha, Angelmoon, among others. DAMIAN'S next single, "SAY YOU WANT ME" produced by Chris "The Greek" Panaghi and featuring remixes by the legendary Guido Osorio, of the world-famous production team Razor and Guido, was a staple of dance floors and radio mix shows all over the globe. Next, DAMIAN released five singles under AMATHUS MUSIC including "ANOTHER HEARTACHE", "READY TO FLY AWAY", "LOVE WILL FIND A WAY," "OVER NOW" and "FEEL THE MUSIC", which garnered worldwide attention and global radio and mixshow airplay, and were featured on instore playlists for major retailers such as ABERCROMBIE FITCH, ADIDAS, TOMMY HILFIGER and on AMERICAN AIRLINES. "READY TO FLY AWAY" was a featured track on the cd compilation "CHRIS THE GREEK PANAGHI - WORKING THE MIX" on Water Music Records/Universal. DAMIAN is currently working with French production duo Digiteck on several new soon to be released projects. Musically, DAMIAN finds inspiration in various styles of music, but was heavily influenced growing up by classic artists from Motown and the disco era; by Madonna and the 80s dance scene; and by everything else in between! "Music is always changing," DAMIAN says, "so I am always finding new influences." In an industry where performers come and go, DAMIAN WILD is here to stay.
