Be prepared for a CD that you can actually listen to front to back, because these music and lyrics are cutting edge. 18 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Famlitziez: Blood Is Thicker is out to redefine how it's done. The group was formed in 1997 and blew away the competition on the streets of Kentucky. Now they are out to rule the world. Made up of street superstar rhyme maestro Hatch, ultra talented producer/hook doctor ENP, and all-world rapper/salesman/player Mr. Leach, the trio is now building an empire of acts to follow up their next release that will collide with the world within weeks. We represent the Bay Area, Sacramento, the home state Kentucky, Dayton (OH), and Beaumont, TX. We are with, not in competition with, our fellow indie artists. The group is now based in Phoenix, AZ. "Blood Is Thicker..." was the groups first ghetto platinum release. Now, unfortunately for those who hate the Tiez, "tHe fEar eXists" trumps that release with street hit after street hit. "tH.e fE.ar eX.ists" is a stance against weak albums being put out by various labels who only require that their artists have 2 or 3 good radio friendly songs and the rest of their album is just filler. The second letter in each word is capitalized to signify our second album. Those letters spell HEX, which means that these crappy artist's luck has run out. "tHe fEar eXists" refers to these weak Northern Cali industry insiders that have tried to hold us down. Well, my friends, your luck just ran out. The Fam has returned. Watch out for new family members like D. Moss. Moss brings his highly infectious Texas drawl to the family and with ENP on the beats, his first album is a classic in the making. D. Moss's radio hit "Supa Heavyweights" dominated the battle of the beats competition until finally, after a week of wins, being dethroned by Ultra-Heavyweight Jay-Z. Well, Jay-Z's (supposedly) retired now and ENP has produced a monster track for D. Moss called "Who U Talkin' To." Look for D. Moss to smash the competition again soon.
