Jazzy guitar crystalline vocals by the lyrical, never-in-one-place-for-too-long Lis Harvey; Hammond, slide, and quiet jungle beats build a velvety, warm cocoon around this debut studio album from America's mod folk troubadour. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: - One of July's Top Albums (Folk DJ) - Jazzy guitar, crystalline folk vocals and "spring stream songs" (DIRTY LINEN) make up the central nervous system of this new release from folk-athlete Lis Harvey. Formerly known for setting a Guinness World Record with her "fifty state tour" (she played all 50 US States in just 60 days), the willful red-head dusts her competitors with this collection of hard-won, expertly woven tales and musings. PORCUPINE features Hammond, bodhran, ashiko, kalimbe, and even burro-jaw - as well as plenty of acoustic tracks and even a little slide guitar by Ms. Harvey. Duncan Watt (JENNIFER KIMBALL, GREG GREENWAY) co-produces, while Bob Beal (C. Merenda of The MAMMALS) and Joe Chellman (TRES FEMMES, ANTJE) contribute guitar and percussion. "A butterfly right out of the cocoon. Lis Harvey is a delicate balance of honesty and beauty, singing up some hard truths." - CLEVELAND FREE PRESS
