Details: WOLF is a songwriter based in New York City. He has a distinctively original writing style and voice that speaks of dreams and human experience. The first self-produced 10 song release by this artist entitled "Seaside" is an eclectic blend of styles culminating in what the artist calls "world rock". The songs range from alternative acoustic folk found in "Lover's Illusion" and "Home Again" to unique arrangements with strong world beat and experimental influences blending acoustic instruments with drum bass, electronica, and traditional band settings found in "Breathe", "Seaside", and "Beloved One". The song "Spirit" is a testament to WOLF's dedication to producing music so completely true to his own spirit - a sound yet to be heard. This CD is a sampler of WOLF's artistic versatility whose varied songwriting styles are tied together by his rich voice and virtuostic guitar skills.
