

Mp3 Marv Hamilton - Wing And A Prayer

Debut album from this smoky-voiced baritone on his ol'Martin. Americana, acoustic blues, ballads, breakup songs and "redrock eco folk". 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, BLUES: Acoustic Blues

Details: Marv Hamilton learned to sing in the back seat of a 47 Buick while his mother, who sang on the radio in the 30s, and father, a natural whiskey-drinking baritone, harmonized in the front. Marv picked up his first guitar in 1973 to play along with Cat Stevens, James Taylor, Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young. He was 24 and a Vietnam vet. In 1988, Marv began to play, write songs and perform with acoustic trio, Vuja De. In 2000, Marv released his debut solo album, Wing and a Prayer under his own indie label, Best Dog Records. Acoustic blues, ballads, breakup songs and redrock eco-folk. A psychotherapist, activist and tree-hugger, Marv is a three-time winner in Salt Lakes prestigious KRCL/Founders Title Folk and Bluegrass Performing Songwriter Showcase. Marv was also a 2001 Kerrville Newfolk Finalist at Kerrville, Texas. Steve Seskin says, If you dont feel something when you listen to Marv, youre probably dead. Susanne Milsaps of Salt Lakes KRCL 91FM and Magpie House Concerts Series chose Wing and A Prayer as best local album of 2000 and says Marvs the rootsy, earthy, teller of everymans story. Marvs release of his 2d album, The Mind Will Follow, played to a sellout crowd at the University of Utah in Oct 2006. Of Hamilton, Catalyst magazine says, Simply put, hes one hell of a storyteller. Of his new record, the Salt Lake Tribune says Hamiltons folk and acoustic blues songs, whether they be love ballads, political dissections or odes to the mountains where he runs with his dog, have earned him a reputation as one of Utahs finest songwriters. Paul Swensen, in the University of Utahs alumni magazine Continuum, says, His songwriting smells of the earth. He has an abiding respect for animals and wildlife. He writes achingly beautiful love songs. And his sense of humor reveals itself in offbeat ways. And Love of literature, poetry and good writinga lasting legacy of Hamiltons English degreeshow up in his gift as a lyricist. Marv Hamilton is clearly an artist who pays close attention to all facets of his art, whether words, music, or performance. There is a polish and attention to detail in this work that is so often lacking in contemporary so-called singer-songwriters. This is work of a quality and class that this reviewer rarely sees. I'd highly recommend to anyone interested in contemporary American songwriting that they give Marv Hamilton a listen. Bob McKenzie, Soundbytes.
