Contemporary folk music with an emphasis on maritime music and a great San Francisco cable car song
12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Sea Shanties, FOLK: Traditional Folk Show all album songs: Sausalito Sailor
Songs Details: OH! CALIFORNIA has been referred to as a super group and their song "Hyde Street Grip" as a hit. An adept combination of veteran performers whose members have played all over the Bay Area and in Hawaii, Montana, Idaho, Alaska, Nevada, Utah, Oregon, Washington, and Southern California. This truly unstoppable group covers a lot of musical territory including Irish, California, and maritime history. The music is entertaining for visiting tourists and local folks alike. The quality of their musicianship is striking. This world class ensemble plays great songs at pulsating tempos with excellent soloing and stirring vocals that includes audience participation opportunities to sing and clap along. They've performed at festivals, dinners, yacht clubs, pirate parties, and cocktail lounges. One of the pleasant surprises was that they found their music was enjoyed by young and old alike. The group has appeared numerous times on "San Francisco Sounds" television show. Their songs have been played on KALW, KPFA, KKUP, "Dr. Demento", and "The Folk Sampler" nationwide and in Australia. They have recently played at: The main theater-Golden Gate Park (seats several hundred people), Shadelands Museum-Walnut Creek, S. F. Maritime Museum (on numerous occasions for large crowds), Fort Mason Center (for people all over the world), Malloy's Historic Irish Pub, The Port of Redwood City Park, The Plaza of 101 California- S. F., and The Crocker Galleria-S. F.
