Details: Singer/Songwriter/Producer Tauros grew up on the mean streets of Detroit, MI as the youngest of 3 siblings to an artistic mother and a traveling musician father. To escape the perils of drug dealing and violence, he and his brother/producer Miztaklean both studied piano but Tauros ventured off into vocals and other instruments early on. A self taught guitar, bass and keyboardist Tauros says the music of the 80's influenced him to pursue his dreams. Searching for exposure, he entered and won a citywide talent search that earned him the $500 dollar prize. Tauros felt he reached his peak in Detroit and wanted to travel for bigger and better things. A family friend recognized his talent and flew him to Los Angeles to record a demo when he tripped upon a feature role in Monica's videos "The 1st Night" and "Angel of Mine". After that taste of success, Tauros met another singer at a Janet Jackson concert that landed him a gig as background singer for recording artist TYRESE. Hired by the manager of Tyrese, who helped visually enhance the performances of Michael Jackson, Usher and Beyonce, Tauros learned as much as he could from the experience. Touring the United States and performing on MTV, BET, Showtime at the Apollo and a host of other shows, gave him the fuel to go further. Tauros lived in the heart of Hollywood so it was only natural that he crash a few auditions. As luck would have it, he crashed the right one and booked a national commercial through famed Aaliyah choreographer Fatima Robinson for NIKE. Tauros enjoyed the benefits and immediately booked another national commercial for CHEVY IMPALA. Not one to stray to far away from music, Tauros is now starting his own label TAUROS MUSIC and promoting his internet hits "LIKE U", "MYSPACE LOVESONG" and "RBG". His biggest Myspace hit CUTTY BUDDY was a recent feature on dailytunezand quixotemodato much fanfare. 15,000 plays and counting, Tauros created his buzz by being the 1st artist to personally call his fans on the phone. "I believe artists should try to connect with the people who support them" replied Tauros after someone asked why would he spend so much time making calls. He is now traveling and promoting his new cd, "KING OF HEARTS" to be released in 2009. Don't miss the next chapter of his inspiring story.
