Tes, I just got time to sit and listen to your cd's...I am so proud of you I cant stand it. They were wonderful, and I sang with you again like the old days.Love love love them. Love Liz Sure enjoyed the show Wednesday. Carol and I agreed we've never seen a band of such talent and spirit. The whole package of photos will run in Sunday's Wm'son County Sun. --George When the Teresa Garner Bluegrass Band turned up the banjo, mandolin, guitar, and bass fiddle Wednesday night at Dale's Essenhaus in Walburg, it was difficult to keep one's toes from tapping-or find a place to sit. It was a full house for the country restaurant with a large contingent of regulars from Sun City. From bluegrass ballds to break downs - including an audience sing-a-long of "Rockin' Robin" - the band played and sang new and traditional numbers, including virtuoso solos on eah instrument.
