Gentle, unpretentious, quiet and soothing, these restful pieces are perfect for unwinding after a long day or for easing the stress of a busy commute. 15 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Piano solo, CLASSICAL: Film Music Details: Gentle, unpretentious, quiet and soothing, these restful pieces are perfect for unwinding after a long day or for easing the stress of a busy commute. The first five Consolations are in the late Classical - early Romantic style characterized by Schubert's Moments musicaux. The Meditations and Requiescences are a combination of Handel and Romantic styles. Wells Earl Draughon has been playing piano since the age of ten and composing since the age of seventeen. Whereas in the past he preferred dynamic and technically demanding pieces, now fifty years later, he prefers more soothing and evocative sounds. "Such songs have the power to quiet The restless pulse of care." - Longfellow ("The Day Is Done")
