Details: Wiredtogether is a husband-wife duo based on the Central Coast of California. Rick teaches and writes lyrics; Nancy works in the medical field and spends many hours daily in her own studio at home. Their first album, "Love Songs Other Silly Stuff" was a true labor of love which grew out of their experience with a local acoustic group and, later, their own radio show "The Wiredtogether Show" which continues to this date in new hands (and with a new name)now that Rick Nancy spend all their spare time on their own music."Love Songs Other Silly Stuff" was recorded at a local studio and features Nancy's lovely voice on main vocals, with Rick in back-up on a few. Some instrumental back-ups were done by area artists and we truly appreciate all their support and advice. Nancy Rick perform locally several nights a week in the Monterey area. Future releases are nearing completion as we speak, to include Christian/Gospel songs as well as Family/Children music.
