How did they keep finding her? For years, professor Elizabeth Larocca had prepared for the day her late husband's dangerous secret life would catch up to her. So when her husband's dead body showed up for the second time and his former associates arrived on her doorstep, Liz took her daughter and ran. But every haven she found was compromised, as if someone knew all her plans. Now Liz had to choose whom to trust: her husband's former partner or a mystery man who warned her against him. On a trail of kidnapping, blackmail and murder, could the professor outwit two trained agents and keep herself and her daughter safe from harm?
