Video 2 - Deeper Into Business Models In this video well go deeper into the various business models you can get involved with such as business to business, business to consumer, consumer to consumer, community based models, affiliate marketing, MLM, resell rights and much more. If youve heard of these names before but never took time to understand it nows the time to do so. This video will give you a good overview so youre not left behind in the dark. Video 3 - Product research Most beginners fail to create profitable products simply because theyve created something that they like the idea of. Whilst you may make money, its simply a shotgun approach to marketing. Do your research first to understand what WILL sell, not what MIGHT sell. This video goes into depth about product research, the niche to go into, developing your niche and so much more. If you want to tread the right track and save a lot of mistakes in the process, you'll want to watch this video carefully.

Video 4 - The Basic Tools You'll Need The mistake that beginners make is thinking that just because it's on the internet that it's easy to make money. However, this mentality will only set you up for failure. There are some very basic tools that you'll need to get started and will form a strong foundation for your business. Tools include webhosting, a domain name, an auto-responder and much more. This video will explain how to set them up and what each component is for. Don't miss this!

Video 5 - Getting To Grips With Blogs Blogs are one of the easiest and quickest ways to get a website online. A blog can be set up in literally seconds through your web hosting cPanel. In this video you'll learn why blogs are so important, how to prioritize your tasks, why regular updates are an advantage and so much more. We'll also take a closer look at two of the best blogging platforms - WordPress and Blogger. You'll find out which one you should use, now and in the future. Watch this video to put your foot in the right direction.

Video 6 - Let's Get Blogging! Okay, now that you know what's involved in starting an online business, what tools you should invest in, what business model is best to start with and what platform you should be using, it's time to get actively blogging. Again, careful planning is key to your success. Don't just start a blog on a random topic and start producing articles on a range of subjects. The secret is in the affiliate program you promote, along with the keyword research, which will ultimately determine what you will be writing on your blog, as well as how long it will take before you can expect to get traffic and sales. This is not to be missed.

Video 7 - Get Some Traffic! We're now well underway in getting your online business off to a great start. What you write and submit to your blog will boost your search engine rankings and ultimately deliver from search engine traffic your way. However, optimizing your blog for the search engines is a long-term goal and is only one way of generating traffic. In this last and final video we'll show you what you need to do to get traffic now so you can start seeing the results sooner! Most beginners are lost when it comes to generating traffic, however, this is why we've included this final video so you'll know exactly what to do.
