Electrifying, passionate virtuoso playing with over the top technique: this child prodigy has all this and a great deal more, in full display. 14 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Piano solo, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Show all album songs: Bronika Kushkuley, "live"! Songs Details: Electrifying! Passionate! Virtuoso playing! Over the top technique! Child prodigy Bronika Kushkuley has all that and a great deal more, in full display on this "live" Eroica classic. If you like June de Toth, Martha Argerich and Alicia de la Rocca, you'll love Bronika Kushkuley; who at 15, is well on her way to gaining equal stature with these gigantically gifted women pianists. She takes on the masters in youthful, unintimidated stride: Beethoven (no problem) - Liszt - (just her meat) -Schumann (a walk in the park) - Mendelssohn (not even a stretch) - and Debussy (fastest fingers in the west). BRONIKA KUSHKULEY Bronika Kushkuley was born on August 5, 1987. She began studying piano when she was six with Julia Bernstein. Since May 1999, Bronika has been a student of Wha Kyun Byun of the New England Conservatory. Bronika has been the first prize winner of three international competitions, including the International Young Pianists Competition in Senigallia, Italy in 1997 where she competed with pianists under the age of sixteen from twenty countries. In 2000/2001 academic year, she won two concerto competitions and performed J.S. Bach Concerto in D Minor with the New England Philharmonic Orchestra and Beethoven's Piano Concerto No 2 with the NEC Youth Symphony Orchestra. A part of her May 2000 solo recital was broadcast by National Public Radio and her recordings were recently featured on Boston Classical Radio Station (WCRB) in "The Great Young Ladies of Classical." Bronika has performed in numerous piano recitals in the United States and Europe, including performances at Carnegie Hall, Kennedy Center, Teatro Marcello, Jordan Hall and Avery Fisher Hall, and recently with Keith Lockhart and the Boston Pops. Amazing! Bronika recorded her first solo CD at the age 10, her second CD was recorded live when she was 12 years old. You'll find all 3 of her spectacular CDs on Eroica ... the fastest growing independent classical music label on earth.
