With a singular goal of superceding the musical "status quo", Contraption constantly strives to compose and perform music that truly reveals human emotion. The Vermont Review calls Contraption "Simply the most dynamic and diverse band to come out of Vermont in years. A must see..." The debut release "Self Portrait" is a reflection of Contraption's diverse tastes and influences as well as musical proficiency. The depth of this music is such that it truly gets better and better as you listen to it again and again. This brilliant debut is an exciting experience that all music lovers will enjoy.
