Eclectic Garage Funk with a Glitter Rock twist 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Psychedelic, URBAN/R&B: Funk
Details: This is the Drool Brothers' exciting new 2004 full-length follow up to their critically acclaimed debut. The Drool Brothers are Chuck Mancillas and Tom Slik (real brothers) and friend Joe Kramer. They experiment with recording and somehow fuse garage funk, retro-soul, and power pop into a psychedelic collage of humor and irony. This record features spoken passages in Urdu, a guest appearance by a legendary punker and a forced appearance by Chuck and Tom's mother, Sally. The Drool Brothers are influenced by P-Funk, 60's garage, Power Pop, ABBA, Zappa, John Cage, the JB's, Jerry West, Anton Chekov, Iggy Pop and Soupy Sales. The Drool Brothers are no strangers to college radio and are happy being under the radar, beneath the banal corporate wasteland, where they can freely amuse, confuse, gain and alienate their fans. The Drool Brothers are part of Barfing Glitter Records roster, an independent label that caters to home recorded and experimental pop and anti-pop masterpieces.
