One of the HOTTEST independent Records out right now, Noted by HipHopand HipHopReaction.com.... 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop Details: Dyverse Bio: Dyverse is a 21 yr old artist straight out of South Florida. Now Dyverse represents Cashville, Ten-a-Key to tha fullest. He has been freestyling since he was 16 years old, and established quite a buzz in the streets of Florida through his freestyle talent. Since his arrival in Cashville, he dropped his first mixtape within 3 months of being there which was entitled "Cashville's Newest Change to The Game", which featured 19 tracks! This mixtape really caught the attention of many artists, producers, and indy labels in that market. Dyverse records at a local studio, ShowKase Productions, which also has artists doing big things locally as well. You can always check out ShowKase to see where Dyverse records at ShowKase.com. Dyverse has his debut album releasing August 20th, 2005, entitled "Struggles of Survivors". He came up with this concept being that in the music business and life in general, there's alot of struggles cats gotta go through to succees and become a true survivor. It is a blazing album and the single "Old Schools and Big Bodies" has already been getting the attention of DJ's nationwide playing it. This album will hit National Distribution, so be sure to request it at a store near you. You can check out (2) tracks off the up and comming album on Dyverse's website at DyverseRap.com. He has been networking with folks from all over the world, not just the U.S. He is currently being promoted in Germany as well. Dyverse has talked with several major labels as well, including Sony, Def Jam, and Interscope. When he sent off his demo to the Neptunes/Clipse ( Startracks Entertainment ), their manager was shocked with tha verbal skills and delivery Dyverse brought to the table. Dyverse will also appear on DJ Butter's "Mouth of Tha South" mixtape hosted by none other than Boyz In Da Hood. Be looking out for Dyverse to do some big things in the 05, and know that he stays grinding, stays networking, and stays working. Dyverse is all about business, and sleeps 5-6 hours per night, and the rest is all work. Whether its in the booth recording, promoting, on the streets, he's always grinding on his music. And any artists buzzin or tryin to network to make REAL things happen, you can contact him via email and either himself or his manager will get back to you immediately. Dyverse is always willing to work with other up and comming artists who have a buzz and are serious about their work. This is a dream he has had for years, and his hunger for the industry will not fade away. Thats a bet! Yall stay up and keep grinding, and be sure to check Dyverse out and show some love! Holla at ya boy. One Love.....
