Evolved EDM, Dn'B, and glitch are emersed in elements of ambience, noise, and soundscapes, creating a distinctive stylistic approach, demonstrating a realized potential of modern sound art. 11 MP3 Songs

ELECTRONIC: Experimental, ELECTRONIC: Ambient Details: Monkey with a Gun, the 5th release by the northwest duo, entropic advance, is a bold onic hybrid of innovative electronic/experimental music. Tracks feature heavy bass with click cut style rhythms, layered with lush effects-laden trumpet, custom processed slide guitar, rich sampled textures, unique vocal manipulations, and obscure field recordings.

Entropic advance began in Seattle, 1998, as an artistic release of sound collage concepts, which included hybrids of noise, ambient soundscapes, multi-layered rhythms, ethereal minimalism, and live instruments performed in real time. The duo of bios+a+ic (Wesley Davis) and Noise Poet Nobody (Casey Jones), continue to perform and release innovative music which both, pushes the boundaries, and demonstrates the potential, of modern sound art.
