Details: Frank J. Petruccelli is an aspiring film composing student at Berklee College of Music in Boston MA. His major influences are John Williams, Danny Elfman, Jerry Goldsmith. Although his film scoring career is at an early stage, a fetus, he is thankful for the Haunted Attractions Industry for chances to create these chilling soundscapes. He would like to thank Kevin McCurdy for the chance to create this CD. Through this CD his music is heard in Haunted Attractions around the U.S. including NY, Chicago Salem MA. He is in the process of creating his own company, Petruccelli Productions, that will specialize in custom music for visual media.
