Aargh - rollicking Celtic and Classical pirate songs, children's sea-songs, and humorous storytelling with pirates, Selkies, mermaids and fisherfolk blend together with fiddle, harp, flute and children's voices for a delightful romp on the high seas. 11 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Storytelling, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Aargh! Pirates, Selkies, mermaids and fisherfolk sing and play their way through this fantastic collection of sea-songs and sea-stories. With fiddles, harp, flute and children's voices, you'll dance around the room and laugh with joy. The music is traditional Celtic and Classical gems from the 14th - 18th centuries, and the stories are quirky favorite's from Jessie's elementary school classrooms. Jessie Modic, teacher, fiddler, storyteller and singer, has brought forth this third CD in her much acclaimed "musical stories series." The two stories feature a Pirate crew who has adopted two Selkie children (Pirate's Promise - the Story of Weedy and Shelly), and a geedy fisherman who finds a magic song for attracting fish (Saltarello - a Tuneful Tale). Jessie fiddles, narrates and sings, along with her wonderful singer daughter Sarah Mcgreevy, and local child star Isabel Maggiani. "Saltarello - Songs and Stories" has received a Parents Choice 2004 approved award. "...absolutely lovely ...a fun, toe-tapping theme album" - School Library Journal, April 2005
