Rock and Roll with a soul. Rock, R&B and a few surprises await you in the debut release from this power trio. 10 MP3 Songs ROCK: Classic Rock, ROCK: 80's Rock Details: This upstate N.Y. power trio was formed in 1999 performing a fifty-fifty mix of cover and original material throughout most of the eastern ny and new england area. Their debut CD "the Joe Mama band" reflects what their name does....fun! Powerful guitar mixed with rich flowing melodies make up the Joe Mama sound. With influences from Stevie Ray Vaughn, early Aerosmith, and just about every guitar driven combo, There is enough variety to please everyone. Guitarist Phil Camps curious use of the talkbox on "Sick day pay" to his infectious wah-wah use in "Speed train" sum up their live performance. Intricate soloing throughout the cd is a mainstay of the Joe Mama sound. Marty Montena, Bassist, pulls on his jazz influences all through the disk. Check out his work on "No man is a stone." On drums and percussion, Jeff Britton is rock solid and attentive to flowing moods of each song. With many years of touring on the club scene, the Joe Mama band draws from experience, and lots of it! The local newspaper states "The result is a solid rock sound that would be welcome at a bikers hideout or a backyard family barbecue." From the opening chords of "pack it up" to the closing solos in "That damn woman of mine" the Joe Mama band is easy on the ears, tasty on the tongue and ready to serve! "Try it, you'll like it" Give us a listen, then give us some feedback. the Joe Mama band Thanks you.
