Garbage meets NIN. Alternative Electro Rock delivered by the voluptuous vocals of Lisa. Details: Juniper is Ron and Lisa Potter, a duo who want to invade mainstream music with a different kind of soundthe kind that entertains your mind, haunts your soul, and breaks some rules. Ron is the guitar-toting, songwriting philosopher of the two. But Ron never followed through on his musical passions, till he met Lisa. She was and remains inspiration to stay committed rather than be committed, he explains. The vocals, by Lisa, reflect an eclectic mix of powerful and ambient moods. Lisa states that they work together as a team. I like to be his sounding board, states Lisa. I lock him in a room, slide food under the door, and dont enter the room till I hear something creative! Joking aside, they do work together. Equipped with their own recording studio, Ron produces and tracks each sound. He plays guitar and programs many of the beats and other sounds. Lisa sings and plays piano. Her vocal talents expand beyond the alternative-pop/rock genre too as she has performed with the Orlando Opera in Florida and the Bach Festival Choir. Juniper is not a niche type of artist. They want to carve out their own space. Having been dubbed one of the best voices, and lyricists, in (uncategorizeable) music today by evolvingartist.com, they are well on their way. Right now, Juniper is mainly focused on song-making at their home studio, promoting their songs via the web and seeking licensing opportunities with the hopes of developing a live sound for performances. Recent achievements include placements on the nationally known programs "Dr. 90210" and "E! True Hollywood Stories".
