"sassy, sugared, alterna-pop temper tantrums" (The Village Voice) 14 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Michal is a GIRL. Let's just get that straight. Michal the Girl is a five foot nothing kewpie doll with attitude, who packs a powerful voice in her tiny frame strong enough to blow your hair backwards. Blending the sounds of Blondie, Belly and a UK rock crunch, Michal the Girl writes sassy alterna-pop tunes laced with catchy melodies, stinging sarcasm and a wee bit of anger for good measure. Don't let those big eyes fool you. This girl's got bite! "This young New Yorker has pop on the brain and her thoughtful, foot-tapping tunes rock with a Mary Tyler Moore you're gonna make it after all uplift."-CMJ "Sassy, sugared, alterna-pop temper tantrums"- VILLAGE VOICE "NYC's Michal the Girl Sweetly Rages"-NOW MAGAZINE (Toronto) "Chanteuse with feedback"-TIME OUT "She is utterly charming, brilliantly sardonic, and sweetly funny..."-MUSICDISH.COM "a charismatic voice that lends itself to the alterna-pop sensibilities of the songs she writes."-CANADIAN LIVING "The thing is Michal the Girl is one whole woman with a lot of talent."-MusicTV.com "Beneath the sugar-coated sweetness of her melodies and vocals, Michal the Girl does not appear to be the happiest chick on the farm."-Antimatters DISCOGRAPHY: "TONGUE TIED" - 14-SONG CD (released August 2001) "MICHAL THE GIRL" - EP (released December 1999) VENUES PLAYED IN NYC: The Village Underground, Luna Lounge, The Knitting Factory, Southpaw, PSNBC/Here, Fez, CB's Gallery, The Living Room, The Red Warehouse Parties, The Hard Rock Caf, Downtime, The Sidewalk Caf, The C-Note. SHOWCASES FESTIVALS: CMJ, North by Northeast, The NY Antifolk Festival, Canadian Music Week, Music West, The Halifax Pop Explosion, Halifax On Music Festival, and the East Coast Music Awards Festival. TV MOVIES: - two (2) of Michal the Girl's songs are on the soundtrack of "Travellers and Magicians", the new film by Khyentse Norbu (Bhutan) to be released in the US under Zeitgeist Films the end of January 2005. In the meantime, the film has been making its way around the world in all kinds of film festivals (i.e. Venice, Toronto, Sao Paulo, Korea, London, etc...) receiving glowing reviews and standing "O's". Lyrics to the song that Michal the Girl wrote specifically for the movie were even quoted in a London review! For more info and some sneak peeks, please visit the film's official website: travellersandmagicians.com - "MaryAnn", a co-written song from Michal's now defunct side-project called "Kisser", was licensed as the soundtrack to a commercial for Japan's #1 women's fashion magazine, "Can Cam Magazine". Then Michal the Girl was flown to Japan in January 2004 to be IN the second commercial for "CanCam", again featuring "MaryAnn". That's right: not only was Michal the Girl's song the music in the commercial, but then she was flown to Tokyo to be in the commercial too! How friggin' cool is that?? This commercial has been very popular and now everyone in Japan can sing along to "MaryAnn". - two (2) songs on the CBC Television series "Black Harbour".
