Very wacky, very funny songs and poems for imaginative kids and families who love to laugh. 51 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Mike Mennard loves to laugh, and maybe that's why he writes such wacky songs and poems. Actually, Mike is a professor of English at Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska. But when he's not teaching Shakespeare, he's writing side-splitting fun, such as: Sylvia Sue had to go poo while at the grocery store. "O, what a bother," announced her father, so Sue when poo on the floor. Larimee Lee had to go pee while at the very same store. He started to dance, then pulled down his pants, and Lee went pee on the floor. Of course, the store smelled worse than before and the floor was quite a bit wetter. But Sue and Lee who went poo and pee certainly felt much better. Mike is the author of two recent books (2004), both Christian trade books, Can't Keep My Soul from Dancing and Shall We Gather at the Potluck, both available through Review Herald Publishing.
