Another winning set of hot originals with vocals from Memphis' blues guitarist extraordinaire, which includes never (before now) recorded original tunes of Steve Gaines. 10 MP3 Songs BLUES: Rockin' Blues, BLUES: Blues Vocals Details: Currently in the Bay Area on his 2003 West Coast Tour(check his website for dates), Paul Wood, Indie recording artist and Oakland, California native, will play the MONTEREY BAY BLUES FESTIVAL on JUNE 29th and kick off the worldwide promotional tour for his new CD, "Pirate Radio". The much anticipated successor to his critically acclaimed "Blues Is My Business" is now here! Currently based in Memphis, Wood is the sole surviving member of John Lee Hooker's original "Coast To Coast Blues Band" and has been playing the Blues for over three decades; from recording and touring in the 70's with legend Hooker, to performing around the globe with his band and most recently celebrating the success of his first two solo recordings. His unique sound is defined by soulful vocals and blues-soaked guitar. As part of Wood's tour, here is a quote from the well known D.J., Jackie Gisclar, "jabeaux" of Bluedog Entertainment Productions: This years July 4th will be one for all to remember as the "The Whiskey Store Tour" comes to the grounds of the Grande River Vineyards Winery (Grand Junction, Colorado)...Jimmy Thackery and Tab Benoit team up and it's Red, White and Blue Boogie Woogie...What a great place to check out the fireworks over the valley...but really, the main show will be on the grounds of the Winery...This puts both bands together, two drummers, Ken of Jimmy's band plays Keyboard...and check this out, PAUL WOOD and the Bridgeburners will open the show for Jimmy and Tab.
