Matt DeGennaro graduated from Brown University with a 'BA' in American Literature & English Expression. He then attended the New York University and studied Creative Writing and later went on to the School of Visual Arts. Matt's many career achievements as a screenwriter include writing for popular television and sports shows, movies and screenplays. Callisto is a moon of Jupiter. Crossroads: Inside Callisto by Matthew M. Degennaro is a mystical masterpiece of creative fiction, based on true life experience. Angelo DeMarra is an Italian-American with a normal life: wife, son, car, day job, apart from one thing. When the "ill-fated" Angelo is hanged and nearly killed as a child, it set him on a course that would change his life forever. When Angelo meets "Pop" an aging gypsy fortune teller, and Pop tells him he only has two weeks to live, Angelo is catapulted into a series of events that will quantum-shift his evolution and shape the very destiny of mankind. With the help of Joyce (his wife), Philip (his son), Lisa (his former lover), and a band of renegade aliens... discover how Angelo deals with Pop, comes to terms with his "fate" and ultimately finds meaning and purpose in his life. Crossroads: Inside Callisto will take you on a rollercoaster ride to enlightenment, have you reading on the edge of your seat, and give you a deeper understanding and appreciation of the meaning of life... all without leaving the comfort of your arm chair. This book is a coming of age, a maturing of vision and the realisation of a life-long dream. A book about mysticism, traversing the unconscious mind and the transformational power of Spirituality. Read it at your own risk and watch out for the bumps... goosebumps that is! Published by Inner Vision Press in September 2012, Crossroads: Inside Callisto is available in paperback and as a digital download from most good book stores.
