How to keep a person or team on track and work well with diverse personalities. By definition, a facilitator is a person who makes things easy. But if you sometimes find the role to be tough-mainly because you're a manager, not a professional facilitator-this targeted book provides all the help you need. It teaches you the skills needed to keep a person, group, or team on track, and it shows you how to work well with diverse personalities. Designed for general managers whose time is at a premium, the book presents a six-step process and tools that you can apply in any situation-whether you're facilitating a short-term problem-solving session or a multi-year strategic planning project. You will learn how to:

- Build commitment and foster a "we" approach
- Develop effective, time-saving agendas
- Deal with equipment and logistics, such as room setup and flip chart techniques
- Utilize different types of questioning techniques
- Become an active listener
- Give better feedback
- Use tools such as brainstorming and storyboarding
- Avoid groupthink.
