

Lara And The Ghost - Gladness Nale

Lara and the Ghost is a children's short story about an extraordinary little girl who is trying to tell her mother that their home is haunted. Her mother finds this hard to believe until she witnesses an "appearance" one evening. To her mother's shock, their neighbour is the one who unravels the mystery behind the ghost.

- o Ideal pyjama party story for children who love scary stories.
- o The story is written from a South African context with a bit of township flavour in it.
- o Children who find it difficult to get their parents to believe them about their "scary" moments or children who hear things that go bump in the night will relate very well to this story.
- o Parents can also learn how to acknowledge and handle their children's fears by assuring and giving their children support instead of shrugging off their children's fears as vivid and overly active imaginations.
