The songs range in mood and style from funky folk-rock and sultry jazz to haunting piano ballads. The album includes fourteen tracks, with a bonus added to the last one. "Conversational, comforting vocals and equally comfortable songs. Some of her most appealing compositions, including the title cut, the pretty 'Being With You' and the wistful 'Behind Closed Doors.' A fine collection." Graffiti Entertainment Guide, Charleston WV. "A well-crafted hodgepodge of folk, country and rock'n'roll which commands one's attention and encourages the listener to think and delve deeper into the artist's realm. The jazzy and sensual 'Body Heat' proves itself as a timely and strong example of the artist's versatility." Waynesburg College Yellow Jacket, Waynesburg PA. AWARDS: "Body Heat" received an Honorable Mention in the Jazz/New Age category of the 1999 Mid-Atlantic Song Contest. ALL-AGES VERSION: "Jammer Without a Band" is also available in an all-ages version with eight of the same songs and four additional ones. One of the alternate songs, "Mr. Moon," placed 6th in the Open category of the 1999 Mid-Atlantic Song Contest. Available from the artist only.
