His tenure with Poet Voices included performances for many of the nations leading pastors and promoters including Dr. Bradley Price of King's Way Baptist Church in Charlotte, North Carolina, and Dr. John Hagee at Cornerstone Church in San Antonio, Texas. Donny was also blessed to be a part of the Gaither Homecoming concerts and appears on several of the Homecoming videos. Sensing God's call to write and perform his own music, Donny began to aggressively pursue ministry as a solo artist . He began writing songs drawn from personal experiences. Songs about prayer, hope, love, loss and pain, were all written from a heart that desired to seek God and to know Him in a real way. Donny spent nearly one year writing and arranging the songs before finally recording his new solo album, Better Than Before . While the album title may refer to Henderson's spiritual journey, it is also an apt evaluation of his artistic maturation. Critics who have followed his career are already saying it is Donny's best musical offering to date. "The record doesn't necessarily have an overall theme, but if I had to sum up the feelings that I wanted to express, I would have to say it describes my own personal journey of faith," says Henderson reflectively. "There are a lot of questions that I still want answers to and things that I don't understand, but I believe that the Word of God is true and that is what I will continue to put my faith and trust in. This record documents some of the questions that I have asked God along the way as well as some of the answers that I have found during my search." As a solo artist, Donny is passionate about using his gifts to minister to the local church. His music speaks to all ages and his presentation is fresh and innovative. Though Donny writes all of his own music, his concerts include a variety of original material, current worship music, and hymns of faith sung around the piano. Additionally Donny uses testimony, humorous stories, and interactive multimedia to create a more memorable and effective concert ministry.
