Ambient tribal soundscapes anchored by clouds of trumpets create a unique sonic atmosphere. 11 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Ambient, JAZZ: Third Stream Details: "A telepathic sound journey aims at the stars and is more likely to travel to some exotic country." Mats Gustafson, Broken Face "If you've got a yen for the kind of albums that record stores file under "other" after throwing up their hands in frustration trying to figure out how to even vaguely classify it, Ripped Echo might have your name written on it. Traces of Miles Davis, Jon Hassel and Lois Armstrong quickly give way to or get mixed into stormy ambient passages. There are also meditative reflections of non-Western world music, exotica, ritualistic chanting and even brief oddball tunes with sung lyrics and female vocalists. In those senses it's a dreamscape in not following any set patterns or conventional logic in its progression owing absolutely nothing to new age music. For a small label release, it's a mighty impressive effort, both for its ambition and the high level of production and performance." Richie Unterberger, All Music Guide People who are interested in Bjrk Miles Davis Steve Roach should consider this download.
