Kate's amazing vocals takes the listener on a magical musical journey both poignant and powerful. A must have for any music lover. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: Originally from Halifax, Nova Scotia, Kate Ashby-Craft started off as a classical voice and theatre major in University but wanting to experience other kinds of music Kate went on the road performing everything from country, rock to folk and blues touring Canada and the U.S.A. In the late 70s Kate recorded her first album called The Many Faces Of . The first single off of that album Situation Blue was well received by Canadian Easy Listening Radio stations. During the 80s Kate won a province wide talent search in her home province of Nova Scotia. At that time she recorded two country singles, both of which made the charts. Also at that time she co-wrote a song called Was It Easy which was number 11 for the year 1986 on the CanCountry Radio Chart. In the 90s wanting to pursue her songwriting, Kate left the road for a while and settled in the St. Marys, Ontario area. Kates music fits very nicely in the genres of country/pop, AC/soft pop and folk/pop. Her powerful, rich, soulful voice accentuates the often issue-oriented lyrics. In the fall of 1995 she released her debut CD, The Heart and The Mind. The first single off the CD, A Song For Lorian was well received by radio and garnered airplay on numerous adult contemporary stations as well as the C.B.C. and campus radio. Out of 3,000 entries from twenty different countries A Song For Lorian received a certificate of merit for placing in the top 10 in the 1997 International UNISONG song contest. Kate is also receiving Internet, community and commercial radio airplay around the world. A list of stations is available upon request. In May 2003, Kate started working with a radio promotion company out of Nashville and released the second single from her debut CD called You're My Addiction . She received commercial country radio airplay all across Canada, U.S.A. and Europe. This resulted in a nomination from American country radio for the Golden Microphone Award as part of Airplay

Internationals King Eagle Music Awards held in Nashville on September 27,2003. Kates new CD Love Is All There Is, released on August 28,2006, is a concept album. Lyrically all twelve songs explore a different dimension of love. Musically this album ventures into AC/Soft Pop with a Latin/Country/Folk flavour. Kate Ashby-Craft has been seen and heard on various TV and radio shows such as City TVs Breakfast Television and Global TVs Entertainment Desk. She performs mostly around Southern Ontario and has played such notable venues as the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, Waterloos Festival Of Lights, Canada Day celebrations in London as well as the Songwriters Association Canadas Bluebird North in Toronto, The Canterbury Folk Festival in Ingersoll and The Stratford Festival of Canada.
